

Flu Wellness Protocol (Item #7200)

A Healthy and Effective Protocol to Help Minimize the Affects of the Flu

Products included in this wellness protocol are:

1. Innergy #4010 – For a healthier immune system.
2. Vitamin C #5056 -One of the most important water-soluble vitamins. Vitamin C will “cool” and detoxify the body during fever.
3. Vitamin A #5020 – Vitamin A has excellent anti-viral properties. It also plays an essential role in vision, particularly night vision, normal bone and tooth development, reproduction, and the health of skin and mucous membranes.

Product Overview

Innergy - Innergy contains a combination of herbs that provide powerful nutrition for the immune system. Innergy contains clinically proven effective herbs such as Echinacea and Astragalus. Innergy is one of our most popular herbal combinations. Give your immune system a lift – feed it Innergy.

Vitamin C – Vitamin C, also known as ascorbic acid, helps to heal wounds, prevent cell damage, promote healthy gums and teeth, and strengthen the immune system. It also helps the body absorb iron. Vitamin C may also be associated with delayed aging and disease prevention by destroying ‘free radicals’ – the molecules associated with aging and cell damage.

Vitamin A – Vitamin A has antioxidant properties that neutralize free radicals in the body that cause tissue and cellular damage. It also, helps your eyes adjust to light changes when you come in from outside and also helps keep your eyes, skin and mucous membranes moist. Vitamin A mostly comes from animal foods, but some plant-based foods supply beta-carotene, which your body then converts into Vitamin A.
